

ROLLING along

By Chester Fried

Long-time roller skating enthusiast Chester Fried is the vice president and a founder of the The National Museum of Roller Skating. We count on him at the Rinksider to help keep readers current.

Through the years, roller skating is still a great value

How's business? Just fine is the answer. From Roseland's Rink in Pennsylvania at 17¢ admission in 1940, to our current $7 or $8 per session now, we have come a long way with our sport. I remember powdering the floor for traction. We used empty pots with holes in many M.J. Sanders cards I have. This was from 1958. I have the entire collection of cards.

Organ Dance CD available

Dominic Cangelosi would like everyone to know that he will soon offer a brand new Organ Dance CD, the first one in almost 10 years. Anyone lesson and practice time at the rinks to keep this part of skating going. If done correctly, this can be a very profitable part of your rink business. Club skaters will happily fill your least attractive time within your rinks, time the general public would never consider. The right professional teacher can provide this to your business and create a profitable partnership for the both of you.

the bottom that were attached to wood sticks. Floor Guards wore military outfits. And back in 1952, the price of ice Cream was 10 cents and a malted drink was 25 cents at the Empire Rink in Brooklyn, N.Y. Things change in time, but roller skating is a bargain who would like to purchase a copy of this CD can contact him at the rink at (818) 241-3630.

Artistic classes can grow your business

Artistic Skating, be it Roller Dance, Singles, Pairs, and Figures is a beautiful part of our sport. We need more professional teachers along with

Roller skating through the holidays

This Christmas card was one of the

Everybody reads the RINKSIDER. Don't you?

Subscribe today:

1 year	$20
2 years	$35
3 years	$45 (save 40%!)

RINKSIDER

Mail check to:
Rinksider
2257 E. Broad St.
Columbus OH 43209

WANTED

YOU

FOR THE 78th RSA CONVENTION - 2015

4.5 STAR HOTEL SPA CASINO		$59 DOLLAR NIGHT ROOM RATE
---------------------------------------	---	---

REWARD

ROLLER SKATING RODEO ROUNDUP

SAVE THE DATE MAY 10-13-2015 SAVE THE DATE

SOUTH POINT HOTEL - CASINO - SPA
3777 S LAS VEGAS BLVD - LAS VEGAS, NV
WWW.ROLLERSKATING.ORG